Student Leadership CONFERENCE

4 NOVEMBER 2023

In Person: University of Houston,
HOUSTON, TX

Recruit Top Talent with IEEE-HKN

This is your opportunity to recruit from IEEE-HKN's rich talent pool at our in-person Student Leadership Conference. This day-long event will have two exclusive sessions dedicated to recruitment. Recruiters will receive an electronic resume book of all attendees, indexed to help you identify candidates that meet your job or internship needs.

Why HKN?

IEEE-HKN is dedicated to encouraging and recognizing academic and professional excellence, impeccable character, and the positive attitude needed to lead and serve others. IEEE-HKN develops promising young electrical and electronic engineers, computer scientists, and those in allied fields into resilient, collaborative, global citizens and remains with them through every step of their professional journey. Your company has an opportunity to meet, recruit, and interact with this select and prestigious audience.

Plan Ahead for 2024

IEEE-HKN will host recruitment fairs at our Pathways to Industry and Tech X virtual conference. Our conferences attract hundreds of students from over 100 Universities worldwide. Custom packages available and can include our BRIDGE Magazine, Newsletters, Webinars, and Podcasts.
